Resident of the Month …
Arthur M. Mayfield

Art was born February 4, 1938 in Sinnston, West Virginia, to Beatrice and Arthur H. Mayfield. Art’s great-grandmother was a Mohegan Indian with the Covey clan. He went to school in Morgantown, West Virginia, and attended college at West Virginia University.

He was in the U.S. Army for nine years and was stationed around the United States, Korea and France. He then worked for the Federal Government for 21 years in Aberdeen, Maryland. While with the government he was a mechanic and an instructor and one of his proudest moments was with the development of the M1 Tank. After the government he worked for the Clorox Company and Wal-Mart.

When Art was stationed in Aberdeen he met his beautiful wife, Charlotte, and they were married on January 19, 1964. This year they celebrated 50 years of bliss. They have a son, Art Jr. and a daughter, Tina. They also have a son-in-law, Joe; daughter-in-law, Betty; grandson, Eric and granddaughter, Ashley. Art also has a son, Dale Mayfield, in Pennsylvania and a sister, Judy, in Ohio.

Art was an airplane pilot and flew single engine planes. He also enjoyed bowling, darts, hunting and fishing. You might have seen him in some movies. He was an actor in “The Replacements,” “Cecil B Demented” and “Allen Rampage.” Also, he was featured in two commercials for New Holland Tractors.

So feel free to stop by room 132 A and ask for an autograph or just to say Hi!

The American Dream

A country founded on a dream, That everyone could share, That life would be a wondrous scheme And full for those who dare To dream of bigger, better lives, No stagnant status quo — Where all can strive To reach new heights And reap just what they sow ... To choose our leaders And our goals Together, as a team, These freedoms are the source Of this, the grand American Dream.

~Anon.

The 4th of July

This holiday celebrates the day America declared its independence from Britain’s rule and the beginning of the American Revolution.

Thomas Jefferson, also known as the Sage of Monticello, wrote this about our early democracy:

“I hope we shall crush in its birth the aristocracy of our monied corporations which dare already to challenge our government to a trial by strength, and bid defiance to the laws of our country.”

The United States of America

Do you know who first coined the name “United States of America”? Here are some hints: He lived his first 37 years in London, mostly in poverty, and moved to America after he happened to meet Benjamin Franklin in London. Later, in 1776, he wrote a popular revolutionary tract, Common Sense.

If you said Thomas Paine, you are correct.
