

Ethics in Advanced Illness

This training qualifies for 3 (Category I Ethics) continuing education units
Light Breakfast and Lunch Included

TUESDAY, JANUARY 22ND
Harmony Hall
6336 Cedar Lane, Columbia, MD 21044

Registration 8:30 AM | Presentation 9:00 AM
Rene Mayo 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM
Amy Lamoure 10:00AM- 11:00 AM
Case Studies 11:15AM-12:15PM

Seating is limited contact Taylor Altomare to RSVP
410-531-6000 • taltomare@lorienhealth.com

PRESENTERS:

Rene Mayo, MSW is currently managing the Care Choice Medicare Innovation Project at Gilchrist. She was formerly Vice President of Palliative Medicine for MedStar Health, Inc. She has over 20 years' experience, with a focus on program development, leadership, and business operations.

Amy LaMoure, LCSW -C, ACHP-SW has been a social worker with Gilchrist Hospice Care for twenty two years working primarily in the Towson Inpatient Unit. She received her Masters of Social Service in 1990 from Bryn Mawr College Graduate School of Social Work. Prior to working at Gilchrist Hospice Care, Amy worked at the Cancer Center at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania working in both the inpatient and outpatient settings.

HARMONY HALL
Where the heart is.
— A LORIEN COMMUNITY —

gilchrist