

Lorien at Home expands into Howard County, adds outreach service

By: Daily Record Staff | February 13, 2018

Lorien at Home, the Ellicott City-based in-home services division of Lorien Health Services, is expanding with the addition of Howard County operations and a new outreach service, company officials said Tuesday.

Lorien at Home has offered in-home services in Baltimore County since 2014 and expanded into Harford County in 2017. Lorien Health Services, a family-run business founded in 1977, operates 10 assisted living and skilled nursing facilities in Maryland.